

Digital Storytelling Intern

We are searching for a Digital Storytelling Intern to join our team.

The Digital Storytelling Intern will amplify the voices of beneficiaries through digital storytelling. The Digital Storytelling Intern will also be responsible for reviewing our brand and design style and creating digital content that can foster deeper relationships with our supporters. The ideal candidate is creative, coachable, can listen well, pivot, and collaborate. This role will work closely with Communications and Donor Engagement to consistently deliver on digital storytelling objectives.

Core Responsibilities may include:

- Collaborate with the Communications team in designing, budgeting for, and co-creating on-brand print and digital storytelling collateral.
- Create and implement a system to organize and inventory printed storytelling collateral.
- Review existing marketing materials and make suggestions for improvement.
- Develop long-term plan for utilizing graphic design and video for engaging with donors and champions.
- Monitor trends in the field and develop recommendations.
- Present reports on projects.
- Collaborate with fellow interns.

Candidate Skill Set

- A heart for service.
- Prior knowledge of ethical storytelling is preferred.
- Creative and highly motivated.
- Course experience in graphic design, digital media, film, marketing, and/or communications.
- Experience using relevant editing programs.
- A desire to expand your worldview.
- Active listening and skillful communication (clear, honest and respectful).
- Curious and innovative.
- Ability to adapt and work efficiently in a dynamic environment with deadlines.
- Agreement and personal commitment to the Christian values of the organization.

Additional Details

- In-person/onsite (office located in Dillsburg, PA)
- Schedule: Monday-Thursday onsite, Fridays remote
- 10-25 hours/week (hours flexible; based on class schedule)

To Apply: Email your resume, cover letter, and portfolio to info@forgottenvoices.org.

